Tuesday, July 25, 2017

Charles Greenland
Highland Historical Society
5378 W 10400 N
Highland, UT 84003

This document verifies that Highland Historical Society is a Certified Utah Museum.

The museum representative, Charles T Greenland, has indicated that the museum meets the following requirements:

- It is located in Utah.
- It is governed by a parent organization (other nonprofit, government entity, or university) or is a non-profit organization that has tax-exempt status (501) (c) (3) with the Internal Revenue Service.
- It is organized on a permanent basis for educational purposes.
- It has as a primary purpose the display or use of collections and exhibits and exhibits objects to the public through facilities it owns or operates.
- It has at least one paid or unpaid staff member or the equivalent, whose primary duty is the care, acquisition, or exhibition to the public of objects owned or used by the museum.

This designation from the Utah Division of Arts & Museums remains in effect for five years from today's date or until the museum experiences a change in one of the requirements.

Sincerely,

Jennifer Ortiz
Museum Services Manager, Utah Division of Arts & Museums
